

Statement of participation

Oluwaseun Ajayi

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Developing good academic practice

This 5-hour free course explored how to develop good academic practices while studying, and when producing assignments and completing assessments.

Issue date: 17 September 2023

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification. This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/education/developing-good-academic-practice/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: DGAP_1

Developing good academic practice

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/education/developing-good-academic-practice/content-section-0>

Course summary

This free course, Developing good academic practice, is intended to help you develop good academic practices in your studies and when producing assignments and completing assessments. Although designed as a course to work through, the content can also be used to dip in and out of, if you feel you need to improve your skills in a particular area.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- demonstrate knowledge of good academic practice and how to build it into your studies
- understand how to avoid inappropriate or bad academic practice
- show knowledge of techniques on how to avoid plagiarism.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

What is good academic practice?

Section 2

Writing in your own words

Section 3

Collaboration versus collusion

Section 4

Common knowledge

Section 5

Referencing

Section 6

Why do students plagiarise?

Section 7

Test your understanding of good academic practices

Section 8

Conclusion